Greetings from the Resource Room!

The year is flying by and our paras are busy taking great care of all students needing extra help. Missy Sharbono is back on year 23 of keeping things rolling at Savage School. She is the resident bulletin board maker here and loves to craft in her spare time. Our students would describe her as the most loving and caring person around. Lexi Joslin joined our team this year. She is not a new face as she has spent several years subbing for the district. She is busy planning a wedding. Her students would describe her as quiet and helpful. As for me, I am like a clown in a circus juggling all the balls! I am on year 17 with Savage School and am thankful for the team I get to work with. Between Principal duties and Special Education duties I feel like paperwork has become my art form. This year I added teaching World Cultures to my plate and I am glad I did. Being back in the classroom has refueled my love for teaching. Enjoy the holidays and remember to pencil in some quiet time, it's good for the soul!

From the Custodians

We, the Janitors, are enjoying keeping the school nice and clean. Seeing the children enjoying learning is a great motivator to achieve this goal. We are enjoying our new floor machine, which has been dubbed "Tom the Tomado". It really cleans the floors. With that being said, safety is another focus we all must share. Please do not park in the bus loading and unloading zone. The buses cannot back up. So please keep this in mind and park outside the marked signs, thank you. For events here at the school, please park back by the Commons as well. We would also like to remind the students and everyone that uses the gym, the floors are being refinished over Thanksgiving and we would like everyone to please refrain from wearing street shoes on the playing surface.

Third grade is moving right along here in the second quarter! We are practicing lots of multiplication and division. We have also started working with fractions so we are talking about a lot of pizzas and pies in our classroom. In Science we are learning about energy and circuits. We are writing research papers on American heroes in Social Studies and just staying busy overall. Everyone is gearing up for the business that December brings and looking forward to the holidays.

Stay warm,
Mrs. Murray
